

Announcements

First announcement

The Fifth World Archaeological Congress

will be held at the Catholic University of America Washington, D.C. USA
June 21 - 26, 2003
in partnership with the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of Natural History &
National Museum of the American Indian

* CALL FOR  SYMPOSIUM PROPOSALS!!

Send to:

Joan M. Gero, Academic Secretary
Department of Anthropology
American University
Washington, D.C. 20016
FAX: 202.885.1837
email wac5@american.edu

THEMES INCLUDE (but are not limited to):

- Community Archaeologies
- Consequences of Environmental Change
- Archaeology for Social Justice
- Indigenous Arrivals and First Peoples
- Keeping the Trust: Conservation & Data Management
- Public Archaeology
- Archaeology of Recent Time
- The Politics of Representation: Iconography and Design
- Social Identities in the Past: Gender, Age, Ethnicity, Class
- Material Matters: Effective Technologies, Then and Now
- Archaeology in Practice
- Archaeology and Cultural Diversity
- Maritime Archaeology

Congress Patron: Harriet Mayor Fulbright

Congress President: Richard West, Director, National Museum of the American Indian

 <http://www.american.edu/wac5> *****

Third International Symposium On Nuclear And related Techniques

NURT' 2001

October 22-26, 2001

Havana, Cuba

NURT' 2001 will join several workshops, each devoted to a specific field of research :

- Trace and microanalysis techniques
- Applied radiation physics
- Nuclear techniques for the study and conservation of the cultural heritage
- Radiation technologies
- Applied electronics
- Plant mutation breeding and genetic techniques

http://www.ceaden.cu/nurt_2001/